

Dear Musicians,

Thank you for working with us to bring an end to human trafficking. We appreciate your passion for justice and your willingness to use your voice for the voiceless.

We have included two different sign-up sheets for you to use to sell the Red Thread bracelets. People interested in buying a bracelet have two options:

1. They can sign the first sheet and pay you up-front for the bracelet, which we will mail to them. They will need to give you $5.00 even ($2 to account for shipping costs). Then you can write a check at the end of the night for the amount collected and send it in to Traffic Jam with the completed lists.

-OR-

2. They can sign the second list, without paying, and we will send them an email with instructions for how to buy online using PayPal.

Each Red Thread bracelet is handmade by a girl in Nepal that has been rescued from sex trafficking or is at-risk of being trafficked, providing her with a Fair Trade wage. Proceeds from our bracelet sales go on to support a safe house and two anti-trafficking border surveillance units in Nepal.

If you would like to get more involved, we also partner with musicians who have chosen to become supporting members of the Movement. We send out bracelets for members to sell at their merchandise tables as they educate their audiences about human trafficking and sexual slavery. If you are interested in becoming a member, email Samantha@RedThreadMovement.org. To see a complete list of supporting bands, visit our website.
